

NJ has other laws that are more strict then federal laws so why should our do-not call laws be any different?